Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Graham Gehin, 37, of Madison, Wis., was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to 100 months in prison, to be followed by a three-year period of supervised release, for distribution of heroin. Gehin pleaded guilty to this charge on September 10, 2008.

In early March, Gehin made three sales of heroin to an undercover officer in Madison. In mid-March, based on information gathered in the investigation, Gehin was stopped on Interstate 94 returning from Rockford, Ill., with 13 grams of heroin that he intended to distribute.

The charges against Graham Gehin were the result of an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of the case was handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert A. Anderson.
